GENERAL FAIRBURY FAIR RULES

RULES AND REGULATIONS

The Fairbury Fair reserves the final and absolute right to interpret rules and regulations and to arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, or differences in regard thereto. It further reserves the right to amend or add to these rules as in its judgment it may determine, to withdraw all premium offerings in all departments should an emergency exist and circumstances demand.

No officer or employee has authority to suspend or change any rule or regulation herein adopted.

GENERAL ARRANGEMENTS

The 2011 Fair will commence on Wednesday, August 17th, 2011 and continue for five days.

The office of the Secretary of the Fair will be located at the Fairgrounds from August 8 until the close of the Fair and will be open daily from 9 am to 4 pm, fair week from 7 am to 10 pm. Fair phone is 815-692-3222. On Wednesday, Aug. 10, the office will be open until 5 pm.

Each exhibitor at the time of making his entry or entries must purchase one season ticket, which will admit the exhibitor to the grounds. Effective January 1st, 2010 each exhibitor will be assessed a $5.00 processing fee for their entry form.

No livestock entries will be made by the Secretary after 5:00pm Friday August 5th, 2011. Entries by mail must be postmarked on or before this date and time.

The entry deadline for departments 10 thru 17 are listed in their own rules and regulations. Animals or articles intended for exhibition must be on the grounds at or prior to 9:00 pm on Tuesday, August 16, 2011 unless noted in an individual department. No phone entries will be allowed.

All entries must be accompanied by check for entry fees, stall or pen fees, and season ticket. Social Security Number must be on the entry form. There will be no deviation from this rule. Payment must be made either by check or cash. Entry fees and stall or pen fees must be paid in full and may not be returned, and no refund for stall or pen fees will be made to non winners or no shows. Please make a copy of your entries for your own use.

After entries are made they will not be changed by the Secretary unless an error has been made by the office, but the management reserves the right to reject any entry not satisfactory to them.

Neither the Secretary nor any other office of the Fair shall disclose to competitors or to any other persons, what entries have been made, nor shall any other than the Secretary and other officers of the fair be allowed to know that other entries have been made before the exhibition.

Every animal shown for a premium must be exhibited in the name of the bonafide owner except the get of the sire class and party showing must be able to prove ownership for at least 30 days previous to the day of showing the animal if called on for proof of ownership by the Fair Association or the superintendent of the department where showing.

All animals entered in other than barrow, steer or wether class must be recorded in their respective breed associations.

No animal to occupy a stall or pen on the grounds of the Fair Association unless competing for a premium or present as a nurse animal for others which are competing and then the regular stall or pen fee must be paid for such animal. stalls will not be assigned by the Superintendent until the stock has been duly entered on the Secretary's books.

All persons are strictly prohibited from fastening their stock to any tree within the fairgrounds.

Decisions of the judge in the department shall be final. Exhibitors may be barred from competition for finding fault with judge's decisions.

The interpretation of all rules governing the exhibit shall rest entirely with the Fair Association and their decision shall be final.

REGULATIONS

Every animal or article exhibited on the grounds shall be under the control of the superintendent of its class and no article or animal shall be removed from the fairgrounds without permission of the President.

Care will be taken to prevent loss or injury to animals or articles on exhibition, but the Association will not be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur. No animal will be allowed to run at large on the grounds.

Every animal must be entered for competition in the name of the owner or agent; poultry in the name of the owner; farm products and Floriculture in the name of the producer; Domestic Arts and Products of the kitchen in name of the owner and made by the same.

RACE TRACK

The Speed department to be under the control of the superintendent of Speed, who will have charge of the track during the week of the Fair.

The officers and agents of this Association waive all responsibility for injury to persons or animals taking part in races on the track.

The Association will not be liable for damage either to persons or property while in that portion of the Fairgrounds know as the 'infield', race track, horse barns, hog pens, and cattle barns, or any other building owned by the Fair Association.

CONCESSIONS

Ground Rent for Booths, etc. will be established by the Superintendent of Concessions. when a lot or piece of ground shall be rented the superintendent of Concessions, Assistant Superintendent or the Secretary shall make a lease in duplicate, both to be signed by himself and lessee, one for lessee, the other to be given to or obtained by the Secretary, said rent to be payable as follows: 50% of contract price at the time of making and delivering the lease, the balance to become due and payable on Friday of Fair Week. The superintendent of Concessions is to keep an account of all leases turned over to the Secretary and make detailed statement of the same in their annual report. Each concession or Exhibit must purchase at least one season ticket. No person shall be permitted to sell, barter, exchange or give away liquor. No person shall be allowed to occupy space or stand without having signed a privilege contract provided by the Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent of concessions or the Secretary.

The Superintendent will place Concessions on the Fairgrounds on Tuesday. The management shall reserve the right to cancel any privilege contract for failure to comply with the rules governing the same. Each person contracting for a certain amount of space must sign an application stating the kind of business the permit is used for and confine himself to the space assigned or forfeit his privilege without reimbursement. All delivery truck drivers and helpers must have season tickets. Deliveries are to be made before noon.

ELECTRIC LIGHT AND POWER

Connecting of wires for concessions to our electric line to be done by our men only. No gasoline stoves, propane gas or casing head gas or any ethyl like commodity will be permitted in booths under grandstand or in floral hall.

Under no circumstances will any person or firm be allowed to place any advertising matter upon buildings, trees, or any place on the grounds, nor to distribute advertising matter outside or the places assigned them.

LIABILITY

Every precaution will be taken for the safeguarding of animals or articles placed on exhibit and automobiles and vehicles parked in their proper places, but the association will not be responsible for any losses by fire, theft, or otherwise that may occur, either to licensees or others.

Neither this association nor any of its officers or agents shall be liable for injury to any person or property of any person having license or privilege to exhibit on the Fairground, or to occupy any space.

Neither this Association nor any of its officers or agents shall be liable for any damage, loss or injury to any person or property, caused by the negligent willful act of any person or their representatives or employees having license or privilege or occupying space on said Fairgrounds, and all said licenses shall indemnify said Association, and its officers and agents against any expense or liability.

RULES GOVERNING THE GROUNDS

Riding or driving on the track by person or persons not competing for prize or purse will be charged with trespassing.

Illinois statutes provide a penalty for any person jumping the fence, and anyone caught doing so will be duly arrested.

AWARDS AND JUDGING

Awards will be made by the single judge system, unless in the judgment of the Superintendent of the Department more are required.

-Judges will report to the Superintendent at the respective departments on the day fixed for awarding premiums on the lots which they have respectively to judge, same to be notified time of judging. schedule will be posted in each department.

-No person shall act as judge in any lot in which he may be interested as an exhibitor, agent or employee of an exhibitor or otherwise and, if such case should be presented, the Superintendent of the Department may remove such interested judge, or substitute another judge temporarily.

-The awards of premiums at the fair shall be confined to entries made in the Premium List.

-No animal or article deemed unworthy shall be allowed to exhibit.

-No exhibitor will be allowed more than two premiums under the same exhibit number.

-First premium will be paid on one entry only when considered worthy by the judge.

-Should any doubt arise as to the regularity of entry, or other important matter, which the judges feel incompetent to decide, he shall at once report the same to the board for decision which, when made, shall be final.

-All animals must be shown in all classes.

-Check each Department for release time.

-Any person or article on exhibition winning premiums being removed at any time from Fairgrounds prior to their respective release times will forfeit all premiums awarded them in their respective classes.

-Temporary borrowing or hiring animals or articles to strengthen the exhibit is strictly prohibited.

-Articles of Fine Arts and Agriculture Products, in order to be entitled to receive premiums, must be owned, or have been executed or raised by the exhibitor.

The Superintendent will see that this rule is strictly enforced. Persons violating this rule will forfeit the premium and not be allowed to exhibit for two years.

-Superintendents are instructed that if they shall have any good reason to believe that any exhibitor by false entry or otherwise, attempts to deceive the judges or the public, and obtain a premium by misrepresentation they shall report the facts to the Board who may expel such exhibitor for fraud for two or more years.

-The decisions of the judges shall be final, and no appeal will be considered except in case of protest.

-Objections to any person serving as judge may be submitted to the Superintendent in writing by exhibitors in that class prior to making any award giving good and sufficient reasons therefore, and upon which, the Superintendent shall have full power to act.

-Any exhibitor attempting to interfere with the judges during adjudications will be promptly excluded from competition.

-Each award and notice of protest, if any made, must be written in plain, careful manner by the Superintendent in ink or indelible pencil in black page opposite entry.

-The judges books must be returned by the Superintendent of each Department to the Secretary, properly certified to by the dudge as soon as the awards in each case are completed.

-Each superintendent shall exercise great care in preserving and returning the judges books of the Department, as all checks for premiums are authorized only on entries contained therein.

-Ribbons or awards will be affixed at the time of the awards on all premium animals shown in the rings. Upon all other animals or articles the (cont.)

Superintendent of the several departments shall attach the ribbons as awarded by the judges.

-Ribbons or awards once placed must not be removed without an order from the Board.

-The Secretary will not issue an order on the treasurer for premiums on animals or articles removed from exhibition before its close (unless on written authority from the President), and Class superintendents are instructed to report to the Secretary's office any violation of this rule.

-The sheriff shall have charge of the police forces on the ground, and attend to preserving order and enforcing the rules of the Association. It shall be their duty to arrest anyone creating disorder or violating any of the rules of the Fair or the laws of the State.

DEPARTMENT M-2-TEXTILES

Superintendents: Dede Traub 815-692-2693, DiAnn Leman, Deb Watson

All entries in all classes must be made in an individuals name. NO group entries will be allowed.

1.	An entry fee of $1.00 will be charged in each lot and must accompany entry and each exhibitor over 12 must purchase a season ticket when making an entry
2.	Entries in this department will close Friday, August 5 at 4 pm
3.	All entries must be placed between 4 and 6:30 pm Tuesday, August 16.
4.	Judging will take place on Wednesday, August 17, beginning at 1pm
5.	Release of exhibits will be between 6:00 & 7:00pm Sunday of the Fair. Articles must be removed by 7:00pm.
6.	All articles must be the work completed in the last three years by the exhibitor and entered under the exhibitor's name. No article purchased or borrowed may compete except items being judged for decorations only.
7.	Hand quilted entries must be quilted by the exhibitor.
8.	Group quilt is a quilt made by 3 or more people. It must have been quilted by the person exhibiting the quilt. Only the quilting and overall appearance will be judged.
9.	The judge or superintendent may reject any article that is not clean, or is otherwise in a condition undeserving of a prize.
10.	Articles which have won premiums in this department at previous Fairbury Fairs are not eligible to compete.
11.	Only one entry in any lot number. No double entries are allowed with the exception of Juniors less than 20 years of age. Juniors are allowed to enter an article in Junior classes (Dept K-N) and also enter the same item in the adult classes (Dept A-J). Both entry fees must be paid and the items tagged with both tags.
12.	No entry need be made in the Trophy class.
13.	Each exhibitor must tag entries before they will be accepted by the superintendents of the department. Tag the article, NOT the hanger.
